18th Annual Salvadoran Independence Festival

Will be held at the Montgomery County Fairgrounds on Sunday, September 10, 2023. The festival coincides with Hispanic Heritage Month and features a rich display of traditional food, music, and culture. Based on last year's success, thousands of people will congregate to support and enjoy the official independence festivities and it's featured star performers.

The "18th Annual Salvadoran Independence Festival" (18 Festival Salvadoreñísimo) will be this year's main venue for organizations and companies to reach thousands of Salvadorians, Central Americans and Latino families from around the globe, conveniently, and cost effectively in one place – at one time.
